She make you think that she ain't nothing but a lady
She's on a mission just to make me go crazy
And there's poison on her lips
She tried to fool me when she hit me with the sweet talk
She tried to burn me but her fire wasn't that hot
You're gonna pull these tricks

You got me where I want you
And I'm in if you want too
And I know you don't have a clue
That you got me where I want you

She saw my lips move but said it wasn't loud enough
So she pulled me in just to turn me up
You're gonna fall in love

I asked her if she wants to come back to my place
She put the car in park, said I don't really want to wait
Turned it off, to start me up
Start it up

You got me where I want you
And I'm in if you want too
And I know you don't have a clue
That you got me where I want you
That's right baby
You don't even know it, Not yet

You got me where I want you
And I'm in if you want too
And I know you don't have a clue
That you got me where I want you
