Yeah, yeah, yeah!
I pledge allegiance to your heart,
But now it seems it's all gone!
On the front line I played my part,
The look in your eyes is causing so much pain,
My hands on the trigger I'm trying to restrain,
But, I can't!

Chorus:
Face to face on the battlefield,
For love I can't win!
Fell in love with the enemy,
How the hell this happen?
Baby you were a part of me,
No we seem so parted
You called for war, now guns are drawn!

I should have broke your heart!
I could have did it!
I could have broke your heart,
Yes, I could have did it!
But you done broke my heart,
Yes, you done broke my heart! (x2)

Captured in your name
My hands are tied, cause I hesitated,
Now I'm bound to die,
If you love me,
Let this fill your mind!
All the kissing and hugging
All the playing in the park,
kneeling down on one knee asking for your heart, I

I, I, I can't feel my hand!

Chorus:
Face to face on the battlefield,
For love I can't win!
Fell in love with the enemy,
How this hell has happen?
Baby you were a part of me,
No you seem so parted

You called for war, now guns are drawn!

I should have broke your heart!
I could have it it!
I could have broke your heart,
Yes, I could have did it!
But you done broke my heart,
Yes, you done broke my heart! (x2)

Ba Ba Ba Ba Ba You Broke my,
Ba Ba Ba Ba Ba You Broke my
Ba Ba Ba Ba Ba You Broke my

I declare war,
I declare war,
I declare war!

I should have broken your heart!
I could have did it!
I could have broke your heart,
Yes, I could have did it!
But you done broke my heart,
Yes, you done broke my heart! (x2)
