She's been to psycho ward, been to jail.
Been to rehab, been to hell.
She's got three kids, drives a truck.
Takes a million pills and loves to fuck.

Ah yeah, what a great fucking woman.
She's a serious rock & roll bitch.

When the bills are due and the booze ain't free, a nervous breakdown is a possibility.
Can't pay the rent, no car, no hope.
But you can bet your ass she's got money for dope.

Ah yeah, what a great fucking woman.
She's a serious rock & roll bitch.
She's a serious rock & roll bitch.
She's a serious rock & roll bitch.
And that's the kind of women that i like.

When she smiles, you can bet it's the heaviest smile
you'll ever get.
She's so damn bad, you can bet that i ain't in love, but that's as close as i get.

Ah yeah, what a great fucking woman.
She's a serious rock & roll bitch.
She's a serious rock & roll bitch.
She's a serious rock & roll bitch.
And that's the kind of women that i like.
That's the kind of women that i like.
That's the kind of women that i like.
