

Wiser Time "Floating Blues"

Visit "Floating Blues" on MotoLyrics.com

Say goodbye, and swallow your tears deep inside
We can bury our hearts for a while, but we'll carry a scar
And in time, we may find that it's for the better
But it tears me apart to watch our love fade away

Lost in my mind, you're the one
And I float on the wind from your tongue
You lift me up to the sun

Or I flow to where rivers run
I would wait all my years for your love

You disguise, and you hide all your fears in another But your eyes can't conceal a heart that will always be mine
And in time, if the day comes that you should stumble
I'll swallow my pride, and lift you up to shine again

Goodbye
