It's getting late
It's getting dark
In the end of the night
I can feel your warmth

Come up close
Close to me
'Cause in the end of the night
I can feel you breathe

Don't be afraid
Don't be alarmed
In the end of the night
You're in my arms

I'm on my bed
My bed of stones
But in the end of the night
We'll rest our bones

So don't you worry
Just rest your head
'Cause in the end of the night
We'll be together again

You don't need to worry
I'll make your bed
And in the end of the night
I can hold your hand

So come close, close to me
And I'll come closer to you
'Cause in the end of the night
When all we have is gone
Yes in the end of the night
When I can be with you
Yes in the end of the night
When I can be with you
Yes in the end of the night
When I can be with you
Yes in the end of the night

When all we have is through
Yes in the end of the night
When I can be with you
