Funeral

The last obsequious rites

With filial devotion commit this body to the night

Funeral

Mark this passing

Show your anguish

Cast your handful

On this casket

These eyes like sapless wells are dry

As flowers shrivel up and die

I???ve waited so long for this day

Spitting on your fucking grave

I???ve waited all this time in line and now I???m gonna take what???s fucking mine

I will nail you down

Funeral

The last obsequious rites

With criminal intention erase this body from your life

Funeral

Mark this passing

Show your anguish

Cast your handful

On this casket

Recognise this

Familiar visage

One last caress

Unfinished business

You were like this when you were alive

You never let it lie

Even from beyond the grave

You drain my life away

I will nail you down

If it kills me

This is killing me

I will nail you down

If it kills me

You are killing me!
