Do you smile when I'm gone?
Is this what I really wanted?
And it all comes back to me
I've loved and lost
Now everything seems so broken
And it all comes back to me
I won't wait
Until someone comes along
Lend me your eyes
To cry and still feel strong
I cloud my mind
So I can't feel reality
And it all comes back to me
Now I think of you
And everything we've been through
I won't wait
Until someone comes along
Lend me your eyes
To cry and still feel strong
Now I think of you and everything we've been through
And it all comes back to me
Now I can't even stand you
I don't know what I was thinking
And there's something wrong with me
