Take your motives like your'e gonna baby
And have them add up for you
You say I'm crazy yet you want to ask me
Why I do the things I do
My patience can't cool the problems boiling inside of you
But maybe I could melt away too

Girl stop and think about what you're doing

You're gonna lose your head
Darling you've just lost your place
In a world spinning to aggravate
And you're tired, I know
But you aint lost it yet
If you can say you love me too
Then it's your choice now choose
You know just what to do
You can touch it
If you want it

You feel it coming and you'd love to stop it
But your conscience lets you know
That running only makes you more exhausted
And you've got a ways to go
You've got to wonder what your problem was Now that you're standing on your own
Baby I've never felt so alone

Girl stop and think about what you're doing

You're gonna lose your head
And little girl it's so sad
The way your mind just goes bad
And I'm tired, you know
Lets laugh a while instead
Darling let me hold your face
And I promise I'll take you away
You can touch it
If you want it baby

You're gonna lose your head

You just lost your place
In that world spinning, don't it aggravate you?
You're tired, I know
But you aint lost it yet
If you can say you love me too
There's no choice to choose baby
You know I need you

You're gonna lose your head
And baby it's just so sad
The way your mind just goes bad oh yeah
So lets laugh a while instead
Darlin let me hold your face
I promise I'll take you away
She said it "Goodbye, farewell baby"
