Everything is easy when you don't think you need freeing
Yeah, it's when you're living and your story hasn't time
for an ending
And then away life goes and you'd really hate to know
You gotta do yourself a favor, use that brain GOD made ya

(So life's gone and lost it's meaning?)
Despite what you've heard and what you've seen
(Nonsense keeps intervening)
You don't appear to be aware of anything
(How do you deal with all that pride?)
I know it feels good when you stay inside
(They never let you out of your mind)
When they never let you out of your mind

Don't I recognize a warning
Just like you?
And don't I find this world alarming
Just like you child?
But you can do yourself a favor
And use that brain GOD gave ya

(So life's gone and lost it's meaning?)
Despite what you've heard and what you've seen
(Nonsense keeps intervening)
Don't appear to be aware of anything
(How do you deal with all that pride?)
Don't it feel good when you stay inside?
(They never let you out of your mind)
They never let you out of your mind

(Nonsense keeps intervening)
You don't appear to be aware of anything

(Did you think it was gonna be easy?)
Despite what you've heard and what you've seen
(Did you think it was gonna be easy?)
Don't appear to be aware of anything
(Did you think it was gonna be easy?)
And don't it feel good when you stay inside?

(You better open up your eyes)
They never let you out of your mind
(You better open up your eyes)
They never let you out of your mind
