(Verse 1)

If I told you that I loved you
Would you tell me that
You loved me to
I'm giving it all I got
Whether you say or not
The choice is up to you

Times gone by
So fast
On the night that we would give everything
To make it all seem
Like this would last

(Chorus)

Cause girl...
When you smile, Yeah
Thoughts whirl through my head
Like a hurricane
And every single night
I think you and that will never change
You, You
You, You

My heart is telling me, that this is real
It's everything you do
I can't explain the way you make me feel
You, You
You, You

(Verse 2)

If I got you this diamond ring
Would you tell me that
You'd marry me
I'm giving it all I got,
And I know that you'd take the shot
To spend your life with me

And I know that we'll
Go so far
All this bad weather is gonna get better
No nothing will spread us

As long as you're with me

(Chorus)

Cause girl...
When you smile, Yeah
Thoughts Whirl through my head
Like a hurricane
And every single night
I think you and that will never change
You, You
You, You

My heart is telling me, that this is real
It's everything you do
I can't explain the way you make me feel
You, You
You, You

(Verse 3)

And all I need is just
A little bit more of your company
Cause every single dream I dream
It's you I see
You're everything to me...

And all I need is just
Cause every single dream I dream
It's you I see
You're everything to me.

(Chorus)

Thoughts whirl through my head
Like a hurricane
And every single night
I think you and that will never change
You, You
You, You

My heart is telling me, that this is real
It's everything you do
I can't explain the way you make me feel
You, You
You, You
