Starship settles down and sets me free
Sand dunes stretch as far as the eye can see The twin suns break me down on Tataouine

The winds rise up and sling the sand across this brutal desert land
Lost inside the Great Dune Sea I fear there is no hope for me
I feel the troopers closing in so my gears grind and my wheels spin
And I push for the distant shore cuz I'm the droid they're looking for

Canyon walls are looming over me
Sand dunes stretch as far as the eye can see
The desolation breaks me down on Tataouine
