(Verse)

All of the stars are singing notes I've never heard,
Let 'em ring.
Because in time, we'll play the chords that I prefer.
And let 'em dance, like young birds.
Give me more time, I will replace these things.
With diamonds and pearls, that shine and sing.
Like wedding rings.
And will I have, the time to say goodbye.

(Chorus)

'Cause I am the darkness in the sky,
Sweeping winds that haunt the night.
The burning fire from deep inside,
Will come undone.
And give me another time to fight,
Another chance to say good bye.
I wasn't prepared to let the light, come undone.

(Verse)

Another painful day, my hands are red and torn.
From crawling across the floor, my knees are cracked and worn.
I sat outside, 'till the morning broke the sky.
Singing painful melodies, in the storm.

(Chorus)

'Cause I am the darkness in the sky,
Sweeping winds that haunt the night.
The burning fire from deep inside,
Will come undone.
And give me another time to fight,
Another chance to say good bye.
I wasn't prepared to let the light, come undone.

(Chorus)

'Cause I am the darkness in the sky,
Sweeping winds that haunt the night.
The burning fire from deep inside,
Will come undone, come undone.
And give me another time to fight,

Another chance to say good bye.
I wasn't prepare to let the light, come undone,
come undone.
Come undooooone, oh no.
Come undooooone, oh no.

(Verse)

All of the stars are singin' notes I've never heard.
The swallow and finch will leave the nest, and merch(?).
And let 'em dance, like young birds.
