Oh anna lisa
Who are you now?
Somebody's pisspot or somebody's crown
You throw up your hands and let destiny steer
Oh anna lisa
How long has it been
Since i crawled out of your
Generous dream
Waking up early with drums in my ears

Anna lisa
Anna lisa

So Anna lisa
I decided i'd go
And that if i came back
I'd have something to show
And we'd laugh at the people who're laughing at you

Anna lisa
Anna lisa
None of it came true

Oh anna lisa
Your sex and your spark
Winter companions that glow in the dark
There's love in the way that you held out on me
But though anna lisa
I'd love to believe
In the cheap magic tricks from your cavernous sleeves
I'm not at all what you thought i would be...

Anna lisa
Anna lisa
None of it came true
