"Lilies"

I lay me down like a truth amongst the dares
I lay me down and someone cut my hair
I lay me down I cannot remember where

I think about it less than you'd think
The thing that happened when I was asleep
I think about it more than you'd know
The things that waking I myself chose

I dreamed a woman where the night sky met my eyes
I dreamed a woman she had lilies in her eyes
I feel that something inside me wants to rise

I think about it less than you'd think
The thing that happened when I was asleep
Sometimes it weighs heavy on me
The things I did when I was awake
Sometimes it weighs heavy on me
