Everyday I wish for a time machine
Take me back to the day
When the music and houses and people
Had style and beauty, you know, you know
Had style and beauty you know

Everyday I lock myself up and I
Try to figure a way back
But I'm stuck here in time of such ugliness
Eating my time away, away
It's eating my time away

Oh, I guess I am here to stay
There's no time for beauty
They've taken those times away

Oh, I guess this will be the way
There's no time for beauty
They've taken those times away

Oh, I guess I am here to stay
There's no time for beauty
They've taken those times away

Oh, I guess this will be the way
There's no time for beauty
They've taken those times
No time for beauty
They've taken those times
No time for beauty
They've taken those times away

Everyday I wish for a time machine
Take me back to the day
When the music and houses and people
Had style and beauty, you know, you know
Had style and beauty you know
