Is it so? Tell me, I need to know
Can we go back inside already?

Far away, nothing can be heard, not even a sound
The two of us got close, almost like love
The memories flooded over, falling and breaking to pieces
If there are no words, I have a painful premonition

Awakening of love, now covering all sounds
I feel scared at night
The glass secretly protects me from the darkness
Is my hidden tears

Is it so? Are those people a couple?
Are my dreams lies?

The moon shines brightly, my destination is dead silence
The blue shadows pile up in layers
I used to smile when that happens
But it's so distant now

Awakening of love, now is a secret
At night, I frequently get lost
Time is a maze, and I lose my way
I will discover love

Awakening of love, now covering all sounds
I feel scared at night
The glass secretly protects me from the darkness
Is my hidden tears

Awakening of love, now is a secret
At night, I frequently get lost
Time is a maze, and I lose my way
I will discover love
