Wasting my youth
Waiting for you
Come get it I'm just wasting my youth
Waiting for you
Start spinning time is almost up
Been waiting all day for you to open up
If you want it, come get it okay, okay, okay
Spend too much time trying to turn your head
With the bottles and nicotine try it instead
If you want it, come get it okay, okay, okay
I've waited a long time, been a long long long time
Enough days, Enough I'm losing one more day
I'm losing one more day
Wasting my youth
Waiting for you
Come get it I'm just wasting my youth
Waiting for you
I'm reaching out while you profile me
Kissing your face while you watch TV
I don't need you, you need me okay, okay, okay
Just open up and shove me down,
Drink me up or pour me out
Cause I'm leaving, I'm leaving okay, okay, okay
I've waited a long time, been a long long long time
Enough days, Enough I'm losing one more day
I'm losing one more day
Wasting my youth
Waiting for you
Come get it I'm just wasting my youth
Waiting for you
It's ticking, watching the clock
So why won't it stop
I'm missing, in the hands of your time
I'm spaces between your lines
Wasting my youth
Waiting for you
Come get it I'm just wasting my youth
Waiting for you
