(you, you, you do you know that bad girls go to hell?)

Sitting in my room thinkin of you
Half bottle of gin for a heart cut in two
Black cat crossed my path today
Got the radio on, your fading away

[CHORUS]

Down in the drains where i put my life
Just for the night
Poppin pills, slammin drinks, killin time
Looking out a window at a hazy sky
About to loose my mind
Down in the drains where i put my life

See the black in my eyes
Fears are dead
Got a piston song tearing up my head
Playin the cards, got the ace of spades
Guess it's all in luck no more fading away

[CHORUS]
