It's so hard to live in anthill
Every deepest wish are common
Carrying dreams instead of sticks and stones
Similar one by one

Silent waters of a dreamlake
Turned to boiling lava ocean
I want to have a place for myself and my dreams
Place for myself and my dreams

Shout silence please...

Now it's rain in outerworld
Wash away all angry faces
Galleries of pictures on sand now destroyed
Now I have place for my own.

Draw on sand. Draw on sand.
At last! At last! At last!
I hold world in hand
At last! At last! At last!
Draw on sand. Draw on sand.
At last! At last! At last!
I hold world in my hand
(At last! At last! At last!)
World in hand.

Shout silence please...
