The sun came down with rain

You're an enigma,
Shadow of your former self
Poised at the light,
Shining down your narrow hallway
To pay the fucking price
For the damage that you've done

Tonight, you're showing off your colors
The tide, will wash away your lies
Shine a light right through the cracks
Oh, just give it time, so they'll see
The devil inside

My words, unlock you like a key
Storm the masses, you'll never catch me
Dead in this place
So stop pretending the flood will take you away
You've made it too shallow to drown

Tonight, you're showing off your colors
The tide, will wash away your lies
Shine a light right through the cracks
Oh, just give it time, so they'll see

My words unlock you like a key
Open up your soul so everyone can see
You're dead in this place
So stop pretending
The tide will take you away
It's your life I'm defending

Turn it up, drink it down
Get a little party
I've lost a lot, but i've got it all
And now i'm finally free

Tonight, you're showing off your colors
The tide, will wash away your lies
Shine a light right through the cracks
Oh, just give it time, so they'll see

The devil inside
