Ragged and my brain hurts. I can't believe they're following thier part.
Losing my patience and fading again, not falling from what i believe in.

Out here on our own not trying to make a difference.
Doing what we know. Aint buying what your selling.
Don't need anyone but my friends and i'll say it again,
I wouldn't have it any other way.

Dead end job making ends meet, coupons cashed,
shoes on my feet.
Live and learn or so it's said, to all my friends i won't forget.

Out here on our own not trying to make a difference.
Doing what we know. Aint buying what your selling.
Don't need anyone but my friends and i'll say it again,
I wouldn't have it any other way.
