Hear my stilettos
Hear my stilettos moving cross the floor you and me were supposed to be living life as one then you blew it, I knew you'd do it cause you're just that dumb don't apologize, no more dirty lies baby you're all i want then you played with her, and with her, and her now the love we had is gone fool me once and shame on you fool me twice you never do boy you see me walking walking towards the door in my stilettos moving cross the floor

boy you see me walking walking towards the door

oh baby please is all I hear you said enough please, disappear
just you wait and see no more late night creeps underneath my sheets if you're thinking you'll be back, forget it don't apologize, no more dirty lies watch me walking walking walking out the door

boy you see me walking walking towards the door

fool me twice you never do
boy you see me walking walking towards the door

bet you thought i'd never leave you standing in my breeze too wonder where you went wrong maybe next time you can find a way to make it happen, but listen baby i'm gone

fool me twice you never do
boy you see me walking walking towards the door

fool me twice you never do
boy you see me walking walking towards the door

hear my stilettos moving
