ALVAR LAKE
"Alone In Your Eyes"

Moon's in darkness here tonight
the rain beats on my mind
memories are coming now
I know that I'll throw it down
I can feel you watch behind Judge me, it's all designed
memories are coming now
I know that I'll throw it down

I'm surrounded by smiles
I watch my life accross a slide
I try to take control but I hide
Why can't I try?
What can I do?
What can I find?
Don't see your smile
What should I fight?
What should I fight?(fight fight fight)
I take what is dearest to me and put it safe
but I count one two three and I've lost them I've lost you
what is true
what is false
what I've lost
what remains to me?
and I watch you go
without even knowin
What drives you to go
Why do you let me fall?
Why do you let me die?
Don't turn around
to the other side
(to the other side)
I keep it all inside
And I'm goin to explode
I'm trying to escape
takin another road
but it's all the same
I'm going up in flames
the end of the game

the end of the game

Moon's in darkness here tonight
the rain beats on my mind
memories are coming now
I know that I'll throw it down
I can feel you watch behind
Judge me, it's all designed
memories are coming now
I know that I'll throw it down

I'm surrounded by smiles
I watch my life across a slide
I try to take control but I hide
motionless is sky
moon sitting in the night I take your light
to make my energy fight
I know that I'll lose sorry you're right
I got it wrong
I regret
I finally said
I take it off this way
But I wanna come back but now it's too late
and I watch you go
without ene knowin
what drives you to go
Why do you let me fall?
Why do you let me die?
Don't turn around
to the other side
(to the other side)
I keep it all inside
And I'm goin to explode
I'm trying to escape
takin another road
but it's all the same
I'm going up in flames
the end of the game
the end of the game

So grey and cold
(I leave all aside)
I'm all alone
(In your eyes)
I'm sick of you Everything rush it down
Nothing to use
