I keep on wondering just what was the bait?
And why am I seducing all the snakes?
I'll change my dance for you and then I'll change my fate
But now it is clear it's much too late

Can you hear me calling out to play
Why do I keep charming all the snakes
Can you feel me slip and slide away
Why do I keep charming all the snakes

I'm not the twist that made you crooked anyway
I'm fueling all of your obsession either way
I am the curve that bent your will in every way
I'm just saving your heart for another day

Can you hear me calling out to play
Why do I keep charming all the snakes
Can u feel me slip and slide away
Why do I keep charming all the snakes

Uh-oh, it looks like I have gone and sparked a fire
I'm zeroed straight into your heart like a sniper
Why do all of the crazies get crazier
Cuz in love and war it's just all fair
