Records playback over faded trust unworthy silent pieces of reminiscence I was far from when you told me - stop this second this is not mine to do again Unfamiliar, unexpectedly warm this time isn't right but tonight you'll be fine-in-my trust unworthy comfortable - previously staged and directed for your entertainment

I don't want to be left aside
I shall let you know again
Even if I don't remember anything
This life is mine to do again

I don't want to let go of your side
This time I shall let know again
Even if you remember everything
This life is mine to do again

Visions playback over faded trust unworthy blurry glimpses of reminiscence Unfamiliar, yet expectedly cold this place has no time
but tonight you'll be fine-in-my
trust unworthy comfortable - previously staged or directed for my entertainment

I shall let you know again
Even if I don't remember anything
This life is mine to do again

I don't want to let go of your side
This time I shall let know again
Even if you remember everything
This life is mine to do again!
