To break a window
To break a glass
You can't fix it anymore
Not the way it was before

Throw an orange in my face
Throw an orange in my face

I stole from my father again
He wasn't very pleased
I stole from my mother again
She wasn't very pleased

Throw an orange in my face
Throw an orange in my face

What does shame look like
Is it sane or mad
Is it pretty or sad shame
shame

Throw an orange in my face
Throw an orange in my face
