

No Innocent Victim "Reunion"

Visit "Reunion" on MotoLyrics.com

The sorrow's only temporary
Overshadowed by the joy
When our reunion is complete
Never to part again

I want to see you there
I'm going to see you there
Someday

All of the anguish in this life
Will be a faded memory
We will begin to live a life
And how it was meant to be

I want to see you there
I'm going to see you there
Someday

I want to see you there
I'm going to see you there
Someday

I want to see you there
I'm going to see you there
Someday soon
