Well I spend my life on doubtin'™ Spend my time on the rope
And I've learned I'm scared of those things that help me grow
So I took myself to the liquor store
And I drove my heart to the dump
So I drank those sauced up nights and down I go I was walkin'™ up to my getaway van
Out the faded window of a faded man And I was shaken™ and I was beaten™ and I was fightin'™ my soul
Cause™ I been drivin'™ to where I don't know
So I go to sleep for dreamin'™ and I stay awake to forget
And I shut my eyes and reap what I sow
So I spend my life on doubtin'™
And I spend my time on the ropes
And I've learned I'm scared of those things that been a helpin'™ me grow
So I go to sleep to dream
I stay awake to forget
I been shutting my eyes and reaping just what I sow
So I was walkin' up to my getaway van I've been out the faded window of a very faded man
And I was shaken. I was beaten, and I been fightin'™ my soul
And I been drivin'™ to where I just don't know
