Bound by a fanatic of lies
No lawsuit can help you out now Forged by a family of honor Farewell my lunatic wife

nothing saves, nothing fails
should i end, my own life?
one thing, led to torture
blood spilled, on the altar

Oh, why'd you have to lie?
Now you have to die
was he so great for you?
your fate shall come through

We began preparations for your funeral
I begin to laugh with sword in hand
My best friend is now my enemy
I cannot stop laughing

Nothing saves, nothing fails
Should I end, my own life?
one thing, led to torture
blood spilled, on the altar!

Oh why'd you have to lie?
Now you have to die.
Was he so great for you?
your fate shall come through
