nobody i'll drag me into this stinking thoughts i know you you won't never carry it off even if you're kind with me get out leave me alone
and have a nice day asshole i know why you're a pretty cynic shit that i can't stand anymore so sorry about that but i feel like you pick on me boy
listen and see
don't try it with me (3)
i told you well you been drinking a lot and your head's going round of course you think i'm a paranoÃc silly dirty wicked boy and you're a pain in my aah so come on stop
i fuck you
shut up
i'll kill you
fuck off
you always drive me crazy
i told you
you don't even know anything true about my life
poison
explodes
and spurts out of our souls
