[Verse 1]

Wake up in the morning
Take a look at yourself
You're trying to find how to change
The side of you, you know so well
But you keep telling yourself
Not to take it too far
You want to be accepted
Just the way you are

[Pre-Chorus]

So you wipe off the make-up
Let down your hair
You keep your confidence up
Let everybody stare
'Cause...

[Chorus]

Beauty lies in the eyes of the beholder
Let your haters go
Brush them off your shoulders
Let all your doubts free
And be the best you can
'Cause you are (you are)
The epitome of beauty
The epitome of beauty

[Verse 2]

Now choose today
To accept your imperfections
'Cause it's the real you
That will receive all the attention
And don't let nobody
Define who you are
'Cause when it's based off of looks
Then one can only go so far

[Pre-Chorus]

So you wipe off the make-up (wipe it off)
Let down your hair (let it down)
You keep your confidence up (keep it up, keep it up)
Let everybody stare

'Cause...

[Chorus]

Beauty lies in the eyes of the beholder
Let your haters go
Brush them off your shoulders
Let all your doubts free
And be the best you can
'Cause you are (you are)
The epitome of beauty
The epitome of beauty

[Bridge]

You're beautiful both outside and in
And what you want is already within
You can do it big with all of that make-up
But it's the natural you that I love

[Chorus]

Beauty lies in the eyes of the beholder
Let your haters go
Brush them off your shoulders
Let all your doubts free
And be the best you can
'Cause you are (you are)
The epitome of beauty
The epitome of beauty
