come, come away
come away from
come away from it

won't you come
come away from

why won't you
why won't you come
come away from

come
come away from
come away
come away from

next to the glass ashtray
in a little plastic baggy
is a bitter rock remedy
really good stuff
but i take offense to the fact that you're so hell bent you try to tell me this world just isn't beautiful enough?

do you wanna get off
is this your stop
do you gotta have a triple decker super fudge sundae with a goddam cherry on top i mean, what makes you so lavish that you can afford to spend ever sober moment feeling angry and bored

come away from
why

we used to hold hands down
those unfamiliar streets
you used to take me diving into the watery blue deep but now you're trying to find every tiny treasure every shiny penny of pleasure satisfy every selfish purpose before you swim back up to the surface

and you think that i just don't like it anymore but i'll tell you what i don't like i don't like that i have to put the training wheels back on your bike
and i don't like the extravagance or the way you taste when i kiss you i don't like being left alone baby don't you think i miss you

why
