Since I met you my peace is gone all insanity coming down down down and you think that youâ€™ ll get over but it just goes on and on and since I met you mama my peace is gone Since I met you been losing my hair all that was good now is laid to waste luck was always with me it just fell into my hands but since I met you mama Iâ€™ m a broken man Someday when my head gets clear Iâ€™ ll lead you out of grace and pull you back in but till then canâ€™ t see a thing youâ€™ re always in my face till then itâ€™ s all Iâ€™ m saying Mama donâ€™ t you goddamn get me down crying for relief and for crying out loud do you think you can forget it well you just donâ€™ t understand that since I met you mama got a working plan
