Now I find myself alone once more, everything has fallen
Apart and there's nothing I can do, I can't change what I have done,
The storm is over and everything is gone,

There's nothing but hatred and pain which will be inflicted on you,
My feelings on this matter are now complete and you will pay,
You have nowhere to hide just come out and pay the fucking price,

Seperation has fucking killed me,
These thoughts have overtaken me,
There is no way of getting out,
I have felt the pain and now so will you,

One day we will meet again but not in the same way,
I will show what it's like feel true pain,
Physically showing you what it's like,

Seperation has fucking killed me,

We will meet again,
(We will meet again),
But not in the same way,
I hope to cause the pain,
You fucking caused me,

Seperation has fucking killed me,
These thoughts have overtaken me,
There is no way of getting out,
I have felt the pain and now so will you,

Seperation has fucking killed me.
