Donâ€™t be deceived by what your eyes see,
Theyâ€™re making you believe.
The sky will wait, for your thunderous cries.
The colours of the world, theyâ€™re making you blind.
The colours of the world, theyâ€™re making you blind.
The colours of the world, theyâ€™re making you blind.

From a beast above water,
To a little lamb undercover,
Speak your mind - For I cannot be blind.
From a beast above water,
To a little lamb undercover,
Speak your mind
For I cannot be blind.

Tick-tock tick-tock,
Youâ€™re taking your time.
No rush, you neednâ€™t decide.
But darling remember the colours of the world,
The colours of the world -
Theyâ€™re making you blind.

Lay little lamb lay,
No one can harm you here.
Take of your mask - for what is there to fear?

From a beast above water,
To a little lamb undercover,
Speak your mind - For I cannot be blind.
From a beast above water,
To a little lamb undercover,
Speak your mind
For I cannot be blind.

Donâ€™t be deceived by what your eyes see,
Donâ€™t be deceived by what your eyes see,
Donâ€™t be deceived by what your eyes see.
