Wait for me, she said
Just a little longer
What difference would it make to take a step back to me

You prayed for me
Truth told I could have been a little stronger
And take the time to make you believe in me

In 5 more minutes I'm leaving on a plane
Running from this place I came to hide
In 5 more minutes I'm leaving on a plane
Leaving everything I know behind
In 5 more minutes I'm coming home to stay for good
I hope I'm not too late

We both agreed, I know
I was just a lost soul
A life of sin came crashing down around me

In 5 more minutes I'm leaving on a plane
Running from this place I came to hide
In 5 more minutes I'm leaving on a plane
Leaving everything I know behind
In 5 more minutes I'm coming home to stay for good
I hope I'm not too late

There you were reaching out
Offering your world to me and no one else
I just pushed you back and walked away

In 5 more minutes I'm leaving on a plane
Running from this place I came to hide
In 5 more minutes I'm leaving on a plane
Leaving everything I know behind
In 5 more minutes I'm coming home to stay for good
I hope I'm not too late
I hope I'm not too late
I hope I'm not too late, too late
