Looked into the eyes of the man on the moon
And I saw trouble brewin' deep below.
It shouldn't be no surprise that his partner in the sky
Is the reason why his heart is sinking low.
Dear mother earth has had enough of her child,
She's casting him out to the wolves.
It doesn't matter what the reason cause there's just
enough time,
Just enough time to pray for our soul.

Everywhere we go all the people lookin'
The world has come apart at the seams.
It's the end of the world and the only thing I want
Is you sitting here with me.

I'm high and dry, I'm so alive.
It's pretty damn easy to see.
Sodom and Gomorrah is crashing to the ground
And you should be here with me.
And I'm standing on the edge of World War III.

It started us all thinking bout the end of our time
And exactly what it is we would do
I don't many things but when the final bell rings,
I'm knowing that I wanna be right here with you.

Everywhere we go all the people lookin'
The world has come apart at the seams.
It's the end of the world and the only thing I want
Is you sitting here with me.

I'm high and dry, I'm so alive.
It's pretty damn easy to see.
Sodom and Gomorrah is crashing to the ground
And you should be here with me.
And I'm standing on the edge of World War III.
You'll see

Dear mother earth has had enough of her child,
She's casting him out to the wolves.
It doesn't matter what the reason cause there's just

enough time,
Just enough time to pray for our soul.

Everywhere we go all the people lookin'
The world has come apart at the seams.
It's the end of the world and the only thing I want
Is you sitting here with me.

I'm high and dry, I'm so alive.
It's pretty damn easy to see.
Sodom and Gomorrah is crashing to the ground
And you should be here with me
I'm high and dry, I'm so alive.
It's pretty damn easy to see.
Sodom and Gomorrah is crashing to the ground
And you should be here with me.
And I'm standing on the edge of World War III.
