It's Christmas Eve and no snow's falling down
I'm all alone, oh there's no-one around
Can't pay my bills 'cause I lost my job
I still got power but my internet's off

I hate this world but I love Christmas Eve 68954012663
I spawn in a forest with snow on the floor
Could this be the Christmas I was searching for?
My mates went away and they didn't invite me
My parents aren't dead, no they just don't like me
But two blocks of snow and a pumpkin together
I made a friend who'll be with me forever

Cause it's a Minecraft Christmas time
Chilling with my buddy even though i'm offline
There's a whole world of joy and cheer
That's a very very very nice Christmas you're having this year

We built a house, well it's more of a shack
I got the wood and he's got my back
He throws his balls at the mobs so unruly
I deck the halls with this Lapis Lazuli

We ventured out just my snowman and me
We found a sapling for a Christmas tree (Christmas tree)
We skip back home so happy and gay
No wait, I meant that in the old fashioned way
We had a roast chicken cos the game's not got turkey
We made mashed potato from the squids there so derpy
But the furnace was hot and when I awoke I found 15 little snowballs lying there on the ground

Cause it's a Minecraft Christmas time
Nothing seems cheery now my buddy has died
And there's a whole world of pain and fear
It's a very very very bad Christmas I'm having this year

There goes my phone, it's a text from my dad

An early gift; he got my internet back
Hop on the server all my friends are online
Turns out they've been waiting for me all of this time
Spawn into the world and what do I see?
A snowman party for my homies and me
Exchanging gifts, dancing without a care
Me and my snowman we're walking in the air

It's a Minecraft Christmas time
Chilling with my buddies everyone is online
There's a whole world of joy and cheer
That's a very very very nice Christmas

'Cause it's a Minecraft Christmas time
Chilling with my buddies everyone is online
There's a whole world of joy and cheer
(x2)

That's a very very very nice Christmas you're having
A very very very nice Christmas
A very very very nice Christmas we're having this year
