"Follow My Eyes"

Visit "Follow My Eyes" on MotoLyrics.com

Do you only know what you see
Can you see what you believe
Haven't you noticed by now
Bend like a reed in the breeze

On the wind can anyone hear
Say my name and I appear
Feel my soul and follow my eyes

Taken like seizing the day
The wicked ones eating their prey
Cast like a stone in the sea
And the truth never gets in the way

When the word from the sky crashes down
And your ears want to bleed from the sound
We shelter but soon we will burn
And the lost ones return to the ground
