I have no respect for you,
You can't expect me to,
Agree with you coz your views ain't true
And I've been havin a hard time wadin through your pooh,
I throw the shit back and it sticks to you like glue
I spend my time thinkin and i got to say i wonder How do you mob think you can pull me under?
No patience for fools and no time to lose and ofcourse
I got no respect for you

I stand for something I beleive so I stand correct
How can I take you seriously if you don't respect
Livin to do this - havin to prove this Never back down keep my feet on the ground
When I chose to be a player I decided no to lose
If you don't respect that how can I respect you?
I've no patience for fools and no time to lose - like I said
I got no respect for you!

It's not a game to me - I don;t live famously
Get the job done take my soul out painlessly
You tried in vain I see - don't try to change - a - me
Now get the feeling that you make the effort aimlessly
Reconciliation doesn't mean "respectoration"
Gotta earn a brown band - man respect of the land
Though I got sick of waiting for a minor restoration
And politically correct debate is more than I can stand!
