I think more and more about you every day
And I think I'm glad you went away
I'm feeling hurt, angry, and I'm frustrated
But you know I won't forget you
And you celebrate it
Well I can see what's comin' over yours and my horizon
I'm not surprised anymore

I run away from the world
You try to find me
I get a feelin' for the sun
And it blinds me
You try to tell me that you know what can free me
But at the end of the day you can't be me

Everyday I wake up and nothing's clear
My thoughts are messed up
There's no answer here
I've taken all I can year after year
These are the things you gave me
I couldn;t know or see my destiny
This is the time that I cannot see

On the journey of a thousand miles
As I take the first step
On the voyage of a thousand souls
Determination all I have left
And the miles have left me so cold
As my past mistakes unfold
I got to find the strength that I've kept
A hard road with a heavy load

Well I've waited and I've faded
Yeah I've burned the soles of my feet
I can't believe the things that I've traded
Now I see the end of the street
Will I still the noise in my head
Will I feel no pain when I'm dead
Drive hard on an empty road
Or will I crash and burn instead
