Sitting in a heatwave trying to keep my cool The fan attempts to quiver but then it starts to stall We're lucky if the government gives any power at all

I'm melting like a snowman in the hot Caribbean sun wondering where all this water is coming from I'm longing for the evening wondering if I'll get to see The setting of the sun
hoping I'll be alive
when this long day is done

In this eternal summer the snow's refused to fall There is no reprieve the rain just makes things worse when it begins to fall

I'm melting like a snowman
in the hot Caribbean sun
is coming from
wondering if I'll get to see
The setting of the sun
hoping I'll be alive

Siento el calor que es el destino del pecador Que hice para medecer padecer este ola de calor

I'm melting like a snowman
is coming from

hoping I'll be alive
Whoa

I'm melting like a snowman
in the hot Caribbean sun
