"My Angel"

I've waited so long to be looking in your eyes tonight After all these years of searching you're here by my side

And I'll always stand beside you I'll lift you up when you are down
Dry your tears
and hold you tight
And I'll never let you go
or heaven would seem so far away
My angel
I love you

Your name is all I breathe Your beauty is all I see You're all that I want to hold cause you're all that I need

And I'll always stand beside you
I'll lift you up when you are down
Dry your tears
and hold you tight
And I'll never let you go
or heaven would seem so far away
My angel

All I can do is shake in the presence of my angel
And when you're hand grabs a hold of mine
my heart melts inside
Oh baby
Whoa

I love you
