And just one glance is all it took to lead me back to you;
and I'm so glad that we held together through it all
and handled it so well.

Cause you know I'm falling faster in love and I can't be controlled, and I'll never let go.
Cause you are the reason I pray you won't go,
cause I have found amazing love.
And I know it's been three years, but I know your
heart and it's beating stronger now.

My darling, you see how the years have been kind to
you. (You're so amazing, don't ever change)
And you are making every word that I've learnt impossible to say without thinking of you. (You're so amazing, don't ever change)
And I loath, those days that we'd grown so far from the grace of our love.

I pray you won't go, cause I have found
amazing love.
And I know it's been three years, but I know your
heart and it's beating stronger now.

And I have nothing more to gain from this (You are my heart)
And I have nothing left to learn (You are my love)
So take me and help me up. Cause I'm falling and I need you to believe in me again.

I pray you won't go, cause I have found
amazing love.
And I know it's been three long years, but I know
your heart and it's beating stronger now.
