Ascension - Malfunction

It was just all the same once again
The mistakes I have made returns to me
The world is very different
For those who cannot see what is placed before their Very own eyes
The words are meaningless for
The fool that who cannot Understand your silence
Self contained, self abused

Stand up for what you believe in
Even it means you have to stand alone
You can never lose while you're fighting
You only lose when you stop

Noone could choose what is true what is wrong
When they are blind what they hear isn't what they sound
None of them will believe that they are living in a cage
Am I the only one who will fight for his FREEDOM?!
NO!

I will surpass what comes near me
I will be free or die trying

Stand up for what you believe in
Even it means you have to stand alone
You can never lose while you're fighting
You only lose when you stop

JUSTICE!
You will not serve
DISORDER!
Will be your end

(Solo)

No more justice left to live in this world
No more allies left to fight with this war

Stand up for what you believe in
Even it means you have to stand alone
You can never lose while you're fighting
You only lose when you stop

Stand up for what you believe in
Even it means you have to stand alone
You can never lose while you're fighting
You only lose when you stop
