Verse 1:

Youâ€™ve put together these broken pieces
That once were falling apart;
Youâ€™ve put together these broken pieces
The fragments of my heart.
Youâ€™ve put together these broken pieces
That once were falling apart;
Youâ€™ve put together these broken pieces
The matters of my heart.

Chorus

I worship You, I worship You.
For when I was broken,
You mended my pieces together.
I worship You, I worship You.
I am the clay, Youâ€™re the Potter,
And I vow to praise you forever.

Verse 2:

Fill me up and Iâ€™ll never thirst again;
Let my cup overflow,
Let the songs of my heart continually let the whole world know.

Chorus

Vamp:

I am the clay, Youâ€™re the Potter.
Iâ€™ll praise you forever.
Iâ€™m no longer broken, been put back together.

Ending:

I am the clay, Youâ€™re the Potter,
And I vow to praise you forever.
