You See

Something 'bout this dude got me trippin'
'Cause I'm willing to give up all that I've got All to have what I've been missing and I'm like
Is you crazy?

Goes the conscience in my mind
'Cause this the same old thing
That happened to you last time
Remember how you gave him yo' heart?

And in the end that nigga stepped on it
And then you gave him all your love
And in the end that nigga pissed on it
And you we're hurt
And in so much pain

You should've listened when they told you
These niggas all the same
But I see something different in you
Something that makes me think otherwise
Like, definetly, perhaps?
You nothing like these other guys

So I stay
And yeah, maybe that makes me dumb
But those who've never loved will never know where I'm coming from
And boy, you put me through a lot

And should I be with you?
(Hell)
Prolly not
Because every day
It's the same shit
We going back and forth
About a different bitch
And then I'm mad and crying and asking you why you lying
And you tell me to stop crying 'cause you aint doing shit
You tellin' me to grow up

'Cause all these bitches is mad
And all they doin' is hate
And they can't prove it
So then I'm thinking to myself

Like, you know what?
Maybe this nigga didn't
And then I come to my senses and I'm like hell no
Him?
I know this nigga did it
So I get mad and send you a text that I don't mean at all
And your reply to me, is no reply at all

So then I'm sitting there like aint this about a bitch?
'Cause I hate it when you do that shit
And my Wayne voice
And I know this is a double MG song
But on any beat
I can get my Wayne on

And I'm just thinking from the heart
Thought I would keep this cover simple But before I sing the hook, shoutout to - beats for the instrumental

And I'm like
I guess I'm in my feelings right now x2
I guess I'm in my
I guess I'm in my feelings right now x2
Because I'm writing songs 'bout you
You got me writing songs 'bout you x4
I guess I'm in my feelings

But he sayin'
Why you always trippin?
Keep telling you that I aint doing shit
But you don't wanna listen
That's why I say you crazy
Acting like you lost yo' damn mind

How you be making up these stories and assuming stuff all the time
I told you to grow up
And stop always arguing
And stop always going off
And being worried about another bitch

Then maybe you wont be hurt
And in so much pain
And get that shit out your head about these niggas being all the same
'Cause I'm trying to be something different for you
But you think otherwise
I'm trying to prove to ya
That I'm nothing like these other guys
And just because you stay
That don't make you dumb
It just means you a rider
Who knows where I'm coming from

And he like
Girl
I put you through a lot
And should you be with me?
(Hell)
Prolly not
Because every day it's the same shit
We going back and forth
About a different bitch

And then you mad and crying
And asking me why I'm lying
And I tell you to stop crying 'cause I aint doing shit
I'm telling you to grow up
'Cause all these bitches is mad
And all they doin' is hate and they can't prove it

But then you stop thinking to yourself like
You know what?
Maybe this nigga did it
Tryna convince you
That I'm being honest
But you be sure a nigga did it

Now you're mad, being silly acting brand new Texting me all this shit and saying you hate me too
Now I'm sitting there
'Cause I'm super pissed
'Cause I hate it when you do that shit
And my Wayne voice
And I know this is a double MG song

But on any beat
I can get my Wayne on
And I'm just thinking from the heart
Thought I would keep this cover real
But before you sing the hook
You already know the deal

And he like
I guess you in ya feelings right know x2
I guess you in ya
I guess you in ya feelings right know x2
Because you writing songs 'bout me
I got you writing songs 'bout me x4

I guess you in your feelings
