Another day, another dollar to go on You've lost your way, you gotta find another savior
'Cause modern man has something more to it all
You've lost your touch and you're falling out of luck
Did you lose something on your way down here?
And I forgot my sin and I'm losing it, losing it, losing it all

Give me strength, give me power to go on
Hear me say all those good things you are
Give me strength, give me power to go on
Hear me say all those good things you are

You lost a day to living in the fear of What might delay a finding better ways
'Cause modern man has something more to it all
You've lost your touch and you're falling out of luck
Did you lose something on your way down here?
And I forgot my sin and I'm losing it, losing it, I'm losing it all

Give me strength, give me power to go on
Hear me say all those good things you are
Give me strength, give me power to go on
Hear me say all those good things you are

Did you lose something on your way down here?
Did you lose something on your way down here?
Did you lose something on your way down here?
Did you lose something on your way down here?
Did shall lose something on your way down here?
Did shall lose something on your way down here?

Give me strength, give me power to go on
Hear me say all those good things you are
Give me strength, give me power to go on
Hear me say all those good things you are
