Why can't I just feel something besides just some numbness?
No pain
no happiness inside
I can't feel at all
I can't seem to grasp what's going on without going into
some kind of trance
it's so bizarre
I can't feel at all
I can't see at all
No sign of emotion
nobody is listening to me no no nervous reaction Just another
blank expression for me what's wrong with me?
Senses dull now
staring at the wall
it must be a defect Going numb and I can't feel at all
