Listen to what I have to say I can no longer go on another day without the one thing that I care most for life without you I could bare no more the thought of losing you tears my heart apart along with my entire soul there would no longer be a reason for me to live anymore I found the one thing that I care most for and I'm not letting go if I had the chance to know when I'll die I rather would not know then I think of what my life would be without you I would have nothing you're the life in my life and I know that now that you're leaving me please take consideration for what I've said and give me one last chance because I know now that there is no one for me but you and know that you'd understand if you saw me through and that's worth dying for and I know that without you I could not possibly live any more
